

October 18, 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to give you my comments concerning the value of the K-LOVE radio station that I listen to on an FM translator. This national service is very important to me, my family, and the people in my community. Because it is a Christian commercial free station, I can listen anytime without the fear of needing a seven second delay for material that is offensive to me and my family. It brings a feeling wholesomeness to my community whether I am listening at home or in my car.

If K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, I would be horrified and sorely disappointed, as would my community. In a time where one is bombarded by less than wholesome airtime on other commercial stations, K-Love provides a service of wonderful music, community announcements, and family helps.

My community is a better place because of K-LOVE being on the air. I have been in my car sitting at a stop light , windows down with K-LOVE playing and a person pulls up beside me with K-LOVE playing as well. We smiled at one another, knowing that